

Prof. Dr. Rezan Topaloglu was trained in Pediatrics at the Hacettepe University Faculty of Medicine in Ankara, Turkey followed by fellowship in Pediatric Nephrology at the same university and Guy's Hospital London, UK. She also worked as a research fellow at NIH, USA. She is a full Professor of Pediatrics and Pediatric Nephrologist at Hacettepe University Faculty of Medicine and has become head of the department since 2015.

She has published more than 170 original articles in pediatric nephrology and pediatric rheumatology. Author and co-author of 171 publication recorded in Pub Med with 4242 citations.

Her main interests are Cystinosis, nephrotic syndrome, renal transplantation, IgA nephropathy, and SLE. She served as a section editor of Renal Hereditary Disorders and Glomerular Diseases and currently she is a section editor of Transplantation in Pediatric Nephrology Journal. She is the Assistant Secretary of European Society of Pediatric Nephrology (ESPN) and coordinator of ESPN working group in Immune Mediated Renal disease, Council member and chair of Juniors Committee of IPNA.